

Update from Holly January 2018

The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; Blessed be the name of the Lord. Job 1:21

The past few weeks have been full of emotions as I said goodbye for now to my precious Grandmother. God gave her 94 years and she faithfully lived them for Him. I know that she is rejoicing now with her Savior and with my Grandpa who she never stopped talking about since he went to be with the Lord almost 11 years ago. I am thankful that God gave me some special times with her over the past few months and that I was able to be here with my family during this time. I am also thankful for the godly heritage I have been blessed with and pray that I can finish my race on this earth as well as my Grandparents did!

Two days after my Grandma went to heaven, God blessed our family with a new little life! My brother Isaac & his wife Anna had a boy, Kyle Howard. He weighed in at a whopping 9 lb 13 oz! I had the joy of dusting off my OB nurse skills and assisting them throughout the labor & delivery. I have to say, I am totally in love with this little guy and feel honored to have shared that special moment with his parents who I love a whole lot too!

I will be flying to Peru for a 2 week ministry trip on Tuesday Jan 23rd. I have not been back there since I left almost 11 years ago, so I am excited about this opportunity to connect with my friends there and to see how the ministry has grown. I will be speaking at a prolife ministry conference and sharing in the church plant I was involved in while living there, as well as in another church plant. I would appreciate your prayers for me. Pray especially that my Spanish skills will be up to the challenge. I have not used my Spanish for quite some time and it tends to get a bit mixed up with the Russian in my mind!

I hope to connect with many friends and supporters in Kansas during February. If you would like to meet for coffee or a meal or would like to know service times for any of the places I will be, please let me know. Thank you for your continued prayers for the ministry in Ukraine. You can also pray for wisdom for the Choose Life board as they meet in February.
