

Update from Holly November 2017

These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world. John 16:33

How wonderful to have God's peace regardless of the trouble, disaster, and violence that characterize our world. Reading in the gospels recently, I have been impressed again with the wonderful hope, peace, and joy that only comes through the gospel. May we be faithful in sharing that Good News!

Since my last update I have traveled as far west as Seattle, WA and as far east as Louisville, KY. I have enjoyed opportunities to connect with family, friends, and churches. A highlight was the missions conference at Cornerstone Bible Institute. I was blessed by the student's interest in missions and by the messages of the other missionaries. I was also challenged by the Global Missions Health Conference in Louisville, KY and visited with many who desire to use their healthcare profession to spread the gospel. Pray for more to be willing to make the commitment to missions! I will be in the states traveling until August 2018. Let me know if you see that I will be near you and you would like to meet. If you are not sure if I will be in your area, you can send me a note and I will let you know what my schedule for the rest of 2018 looks like.

Please pray for a meeting of our Choose Life Board of Directors in Ukraine November 25th. We have been working on a policy manual to move us into functioning more like a board and not just a steering committee. Pray for wisdom as we hope to finalize and adopt the manual at this meeting.

In my last letter I shared about our desire to begin raising funds to purchase a permanent office for the ministry of Choose Life. Since that letter was sent out, our landlords have informed us that they are planning to sell our current location and we will have to be out by April 2018. We will be looking for another place to rent until we can raise the funds for the purchase of our own place, but this highlights the need for having a place to call our own! Pray for wisdom and God's clear direction as we consider our options for another place to rent. If you would like more information about our building project, please let me know!

Serving with Joy!
